|  | 6 Feb. DCI classified worldwide threat brief: "...this year the thrust of terrorist attacks on U.S. facilities and interests come to the forefront... UBL, his associates remain most immediate and serious threat. UBL's commitment to striking against the U.S. undiminished... strong indications panning new operations... capable of mounting multiple attacks with little or no warning." 6 Feb. Senior Executive Intelligence Brief (SEIB): The discovery of multiple terrorist plots since October shows an energized international "jihad movement" is raising the threat to U.S. interests, particularly in the Middle East and Europe. Most significant spike in activity since the time of the Millennium. Stems in part from changes in bin Ladin's practices. To avoid implicating himself and his Taliban hosts, he has allowed cells in his network to plan attacks more independently. | 9 Feb. As a result of an evaluation | [ ] Feb.
